

About Manufacturing & Logistics

The US Bureau of Labor Statistics employment of logisticians is projected to grow 22 percent and manufacturing is projected to grow 30 percent from 2012 to 2022! Obtain skills in an either industry to benefit from these growing fields.

Education 2 Employment Overview

Depending on the needs for your chosen training program, in the Education 2 Employment Manufacturing or Logistics Program, you may learn basic welding or manufacturing math, Blueprint reading, safety principles, Career readiness and exploration, and financial literacy. After this preparatory learning experience you will begin your career training programs.

Benefits of the Education 2 Employment program

- Tuition toward your chosen training program, including tuition, fees, and books
- Assistance with required uniform or equipment purchase

Personal assistance and guidance from a dedicated Pathway Navigator

You will also:

- Gain industry specific reading, writing, and math skills!
- Earn industry certifications!
- Grow your leadership, college, and career skills!

About Your Navigator

Hi! My name is Brenda Agüero Carranza. I have the joy to guide students while they are in Education 2 Employment program and assist them seek employment afterwards. I have a Bachelor's degree in Psychology and Spanish Literature and a Master's in Organizational Leadership. I am family-oriented and like doing activities within the community!

Required Application Materials

1. Education 2 Employment Application
2. 12 months of income verification
3. A current resume
4. Copy of your High School Diploma or High School Equivalency Diploma